

6 Award-Winning Kitchens • New England Getaway Guide • Trends In Color And Design

NEW ENGLAND

LIVING

SUMMER 2017

$5.95

Display Until June 12, 2017

2017 | ISSUE 1

NEWENGLANDLIVING.TV

DESIGN CLARKE KITCHEN WINNERS

Clarke's Annual Designer Appreciation Night took place on September, 22, 2016, at the newest Sub-Zero & Wolf Showroom and Test Kitchen at 7 Tide in Boston Seaport.

The centerpiece of the event was the celebration of the architects and designers who entered Clarke's 2014-15 Kitchen Design Contest (71 entries to be exact). Six spectacular kitchens were honored with recognition and awards. The distinguished panel of judges for the 2014-15 Clarke Kitchen Design Contest were David Andreozzi - Andreozzi Architects; David Hacin - Hacin + Associates; Laurie Grabowski - Fay's Fine Cabinetry; and Lindy Weaver - Lindy Weaver Design Associates.

Traditional

◀ First Place Traditional Kitchen

Jan Gleysteen, Jan Gleysteen Architects

The homeowners wanted to bring a taste of their northern European heritage to their new home in Boston. While they preferred a clean, functional and modern design, they also gravitated towards the warmth of New England architecture. This kitchen blends all sensibilities beautifully.

▲ Second Place Traditional Kitchen

Mark Haddad, Haddad Hakansson Design Studio

The team at Haddad Hakansson (Susan Cracraft, Louie Kerbici along with Mark Haddad) took a limited amount of space and transformed it into a light-filled room with smart storage that blended with the homeowner's antique pieces.

▲ First Place Transitional Kitchen

Julie Lyons and Cameron Snyder, CKD, Roomscapes Luxury Design Center

The kitchen in this new dream home encompasses the entire first floor and the homeowners were keen on maximizing the magnificent water view right outside the window. Julie and Cam collaborated to create a gracious space that would be flexible for small family dinners and large-party entertaining.

Transitional

▲ Second Place Transitional Kitchen

Veronica Campbell, Deane Inc.

This project transformed a very choppy space on different floor levels into one gracious living area. With the help of Michal Gallin of Gallin Architects and Interior Decorator Renae Cohen of Renae Cohen Designs, the team created a sleek, inviting room combining rich wood tones, luxe textures and beautiful appliances.

Contemporary

◀ First Place Contemporary Kitchen

Richard Bertman, Ellen Perko and Emily Cotter at CBT Architects

This kitchen remodel was done in partnership with Rosemary Porto and Yaoying Huang of Poggenpohl and resulted in a spectacular space that links the interior of the home with the beautiful, natural exterior, while maintaining a clean, ergonomic kitchen.

▲ Second Place Contemporary Kitchen

Treffe LaFleche, LDa Architecture & Interiors

This kitchen remodel was an addition and expansion to the rear of a traditional-style home, and the design bridges the architectural language with a kitchen that is now the gathering place of the home. Once again, Rosemary Porto of Poggenpohl collaborated to bring this kitchen to life.